Some have said that ours would be a society of industrial chemists. and as you have several excellent societies already pledged and actively striving to do something for the industrial chemist, a waste of effort is involved in our action here. But in that argument lies an error which needs only to be pointed out to bring conviction that we are now in the right position. This error is twofold, and lies first in the misconception as to what constitutes chemical industry, and secondly, in the belief that outside of industry the Chemical Engineer would have no...
