His unconquerable energy! Sum all the gifts that man is endowed with, and we give our greatest share of admiration to his energy. And to-day, if I were a heathen, I would rear a statue to Energy, and fall down and worship it! I want a man to-I want you to-take up a line of action, and follow it out, in spite of the very devil. Orion and his wife had returned to Keokuk by this time, waiting for something in the way of a business opportunity. His pilot brother, wrote him more than once letters of encouragement and council. Here and there he refers to the tragedy of Henry s death, and the shadow it has cast upon his life; but he was young, he was successful, his spirits were naturally exuberant. In the exhilaration of youth and health and success he finds vent at times in that natural human outlet, self-approval. He not only exhibits this weakness,...
