CHARLOTTE S RULES FOR NURSES: A CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 214 x 149 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Charlotte s Rules for Nurses, a concise, reorganized version of Aikens Studies in Ethics for Nurses, retains basic nursing concepts and the strong emphasis on how ethics affect patient care. Chapters, pages and paragraphs have been deleted from the original textbook. However, no additional words have been added. Every word belongs to Charlotte Aikens. Contemporary, dynamic issues are included, such as patient confidentiality, professional boundaries, anger in nursing, mind-body relationships, bullying, nurses health, personal finances, and even cognitive behavioral approaches are touched on. Students at every level of education will enjoy and benefit from Aikens wisdom and passion for nursing in Charlotte s Rules for Nurses. It can enhance introductory courses, later applied to clinical experiences in various specialty and leadership courses, and continue as an resource for personal growth in nursing. Miss Aikens is refreshingly direct, and never hesitant about addressing her concerns and even disappointments with some student and nursing behaviors, both professional and personal. Strategies for improvement are presented, always with the patient s needs as top priority. Worry saps vitality more than any other cause The most important thing for a nurse to bring with her to school is a good conscience Throughout a nurse s career, the patient s welfare should never be placed in the background of her thoughts or plans Sunshine increases our power to resist disease, quiets irritated nerves, and keeps us sweet tempered Nurses are not all as wise in the investment of their hard-earned money as they should be Self control keeps you from fighting, and keeps you from peace when fighting is needed It is necessary that an effort be made to look beneath the surface and...
