Henry Huth was born in the year 1815, and being destined by his father to enter the Indian Civil Service, was sent for preparation to Mr. Rusden s school at Leith Hill, in Surrey, where he soon became a favourite pupil. Here he learned Latin, Greek, and French (Spanish was his mother-tongue);and had also got well on with Hindustani, Persian, and Arabic, when, in 1833, the East India Company lost their charter, and his father took him away from the school. While yet a school-boy, he had taken a great and spontaneous interest in natural science, especially in physics and chemistry: all his pocket-money was devoted to the necessary purchase of apparatus, and sometimes he sold his...
