Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Mission Field, Vol. 21: May, 1908 Sin-koe-a (First Church of Amoy) has added thirty-four new members during the past year. Twenty-four of these received baptism, ten of whom were children of the Church. Thus this church has grown from within and without, as all churches should grow. The pastor, Mr. Ng. who by the way will soon be made emeritus, gracefully gives all credit to his faithful people for this increase. But Mr. Ng has other good qualities besides modesty. He is a man strong in the faith, a forcible speaker, and a most devoted pastor. Unfortunately all these good things have been possessed by a weak body. Notwithstanding he has often been obliged to lessen his labors, yet for nearly a quarter of a century his life of consecration has been a power. The Kam-Un-Hoe (Missions of the Amoy City Churches) has done good work another year at Au-po and Ngo-hian-keng in the Tong-an region, and at Phai-bo on Amoy Island. Once a year the two churches meet to hold a thank-offering service...
