So it appears that any one in Paul s condition, after being stoned, would customarily be regarded as dead; they thus regarded Paul after their usual manner. Exhorting. Comforting or counselling them. It is the same Greek word that is elsewhere applied to the Holy Spirit. LESSON EXPOSITION. I. The Apostles Esteemed As Gods.--The gods are come, v. 11. The cripple suddenly and publicly healed astonished the Lystrians. They had an old legend that the gods once visited their place. Now they thought Barnabas and Paul were gods who had assumed the forms of men. The peculiarities of the speech of Lycaonia are now unknown. It may have been a dialect; but whether it had affinities with the Greek or the Assyrian, as some say, or with the Cappadocian or Celtic, is not known. An...
