Excerpt: . . . DRAFT Guide for Developing Performance Metrics for Information Security and economic security of the nation that are designed, built, and operated by the private sector; and Recognize that the selection of specific technical hardware and software information security solutions should be left to individual agencies from among commercially 5 developed products. FISMA mandates agencies to identify and assess risks to their information security systems and define and implement appropriate security controls to protect their information resources. FISMA requires agencies to report quarterly and annually on the status of their information security programs. Like GPRA, FISMA puts information security in the context of the overall agency CPIC process to ensure that appropriate resources are planned for and allocated to implement required information security controls. OMB publishes annual guidance on the process and elements of annual and quarterly FISMA reporting. 3. 3 Presidents Management Agenda The PMA, announced in 2001,...
