Ah, it be a joyful thought that even poor creatures like we may do that! I was thinking just now when you was speaking, Sir, that even that poor pool of mine, for all the badness that s in it, can sparkle when the sun shines on it, and water the flowers by the brink! A burst of childish glee at this moment sounded from the lawn where the young ones were at play. Will you join them now I asked the vicar. Yes, bless them! I love to look on their innocent sports, and my heart is much easier now. Maybe I don t stand as high in my own eyes as I did an hour ago; I see myself more as God Almighty sees me; but I ve something firmer to rest on now than any deeds of my own; if I m sinful and-weak I can say, In the Lord have we righteousness and strength! Oh! never dream we can atone, For one, the smallest sin, That virtues in the balance thrown May God s acceptance win; On tainted works man cannot rest, Unprofitable at the best. Ne er be the impious thought allowed I No more let sinners aim Prom God, and from themselves, to shroud Their helplessness and shame, But at the feet of Jesus fall, Confess--and He will pardon all! The hateful leprosy of guilt, Within we must have seen, Ere we in faith cry, If thou wilt,...
